ALL KIDS INVITED!

CALLING ALL YOUNG ARTISTS!

Enter the 2020 annual All Kids Included (AKI) district-wide student visual art competition

Open to all Miami-Dade students in grades Pre-K to 12.
The theme for 2020 is inspired by the book, The Boy Who Grew Flowers by Jen Wojtowicz, illustrated by Steve Adams. The Boy Who Grew Flowers is a unique and inspirational story of courage, difference and friendship. The beautifully illustrated book featuring ethereal paintings on textured boards is a wonderful story that celebrates the power of kindness. Student artists should read the book for inspiration and depict the themes of courage, difference and friendship.

HOW TO ENTER:
Guidelines, required forms, submission instructions, prizes and award information are available from the Miami-Dade County Department of Cultural Affairs at http://www.miamidadearts.org/education/all-kids-included-district-wide-student-art-competition

Competition Submission Deadline: Monday, February 3, 2020

Winners and awards will be announced at the 14th Annual All Kids Included Family Arts Festival at South Miami-Dade Cultural Arts Center on Saturday, May 2, 2020.

The All Kids Included – Accessible Art Experiences for Kids (AKI) initiative was developed by the Miami-Dade County Department of Cultural Affairs, made possible with the support of the Miami-Dade County Department of Cultural Affairs and the Cultural Affairs Council, the Miami-Dade County Mayor and Board of County Commissioners, and in part through grant funding provided by The Children’s Trust. The Children’s Trust is a dedicated source of revenue established by voter referendum to improve the lives of children and families in Miami-Dade County.
