MIAMI-DADE COUNTY COMMISSIONER DANIELLA LEVINE CAVA,
DISTRICT 8, AND THE DEPARTMENT OF CULTURAL AFFAIRS
PRESENT A FREE CULTURAL GRANTS WORKSHOP

Learn How to Apply for County Grants for Arts and Cultural Activities

(Miami – December 9, 2015) Miami-Dade County Commissioner Daniella Levine Cava, District 8, and the Miami-Dade County Department of Cultural Affairs are hosting a free workshop for artists, cultural and community non-profit organizations to introduce and demystify the County's cultural grant programs on Tuesday, January 5, 2016 at 6 PM at the South Dade Government Center, 10710 SW 211th Street, Suite #104, Miami, Florida 33189. The Department of Cultural Affairs' grants team will provide detailed information about the competitive funding opportunities and services offered, grant application strategies and best practices and share helpful resources available for the cultural community.

Who should attend these sessions? Non-profit groups and artists who have never applied for grant funding from Miami-Dade County and non-profit groups and artists who have received grant funding but wish to expand and learn more about the programs that are available, specifically to support arts and cultural activities.

The workshop is being offered free-of-charge, however, you must reserve your space by emailing RAHELW@miamidade.gov.

The Miami-Dade County Department of Cultural Affairs and the Cultural Affairs Council develop cultural excellence, diversity and participation throughout Miami-Dade County by strategically creating and promoting opportunities for artists and cultural organizations, and our residents and visitors who are their audiences. The Department directs the Art in Public Places program and serves its board, the Art in Public Places Trust, commissioning, curating, maintaining and promoting the County's art collection. The Department also manages, programs and operates the South Miami-Dade Cultural Arts Center, a campus of state-of-the-art cultural facilities in Cutler Bay, as well as Miami-Dade County Auditorium, Joseph Caleb Auditorium and the African Heritage Cultural Arts Center, all dedicated to presenting and supporting excellence in the arts for the entire community. Through staff, board and programmatic resources, the Department, the Council and the Trust promote, coordinate and support Miami-Dade County's more than 1,000 not-for-profit cultural organizations as well as thousands of resident artists through grants, technical assistance, public information and interactive community planning. The Department receives funding through the Miami-Dade County Mayor and Board of County Commissioners, The Children's Trust, the National Endowment for the Arts, the State of Florida through the Florida Department of State, Division of Cultural Affairs and the Florida Council on Arts and Culture, and the John S. and James L. Knight Foundation. Other support and services are provided by TicketWeb for the Culture Shock Miami program, the Greater Miami Convention and Visitors Bureau, the South Florida Cultural Consortium and the Tourist Development Council.
